Proudly Present the Second Workshop in their

Business Leadership Series

Borrowing Money -- Accomplishing the Impossible

When: April 6, 2011
6:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Location: Wells Fargo Bank
400 Capital Mall
Sacramento, California

Speakers: Mary Norris
WF, Vice President, Business Development Officer

Jillian Takeuchi
WF, Commercial Loan Officer

Topic: Accomplishing the Impossible:

- How can a business owner get a bank loan in today's economy?
- If I have a mature business, why should I consider credit?
- How does borrowing help my business?
- What do I need to know and do to qualify for a business loan?
- What type of borrowing can I get in this economy?
- Why is so much information needed to qualify for a loan?

About Our Speakers:

- Mary Norris has a long history with Wells Fargo Bank. She is very involved with helping many business owners to consider the appropriate loan to help grow their businesses. Mary also works closely with the Small Business Administration (SBA) to assist new business owners in their endeavors to own a business.
- Jillian Takeuchi has been with Wells Fargo Bank for over a decade. Having excelled in various positions during that time, Jillian joined Wells Fargo's Business Banking Group in 2008. Her primary goals have been to understand the issues facing a business owner in order to be able to act as their financial business consultant, whether it be growing their business or downsizing their business.

So be sure to join us for this informative Financial Workshop. All are welcome ... Wells Fargo Patrons, NAWBO Members, Business Owners and those interested in considering a business venture..

Due to limited seating, please register today at NAWBO's website: <http://www.nawbo-sac.com/wellsfargo>

Together, let's solve the puzzle of finance.
